

Why study with RDI

Study with

and you can be assured that our professional and caring approach to supporting our distance learners will help you to achieve an internationally recognised qualification.

All the diplomas, degrees, Master's and MBA qualifications we offer, have the same status as those studied on a University campus. On enrolment you become a student of the university of your choice with all the benefits associated with this status, and you are invited to attend your university to collect your certificate at your graduation ceremony. To read more about our UK university partners - please click here.

You already know that investing in yourself is one of the best investments you can ever make. It is also accepted that a qualification enhances your career and long term earning potential but you may not know that a distance learning qualification studied with has other additional benefits: click here to find out more.

RDI continues to help thousands of people like you gain their UK university qualifications - many with full-time careers, a family to provide for and many other commitments. They have taken their opportunity to study through and you can read about them, their views on distance learning and what they think about by clicking here.